Strategic Directions: Hopeful Children, Youth, Adults and Families

We aim to enable greater access to service, timeliness and inclusivity through

- 1) Continuous focus on prevention and early intervention
- 2) Advancing family centred, collaborative treatment planning with partners

Parent Information Night

Tuesday February 13, 2018 at 5:30pm

at: Dufferin Child & Family Services, 655 Riddell Road, Orangeville

Pre-school Resource Program (PRP)

transition to i-CAN

Inclusion for Children with Additional Needs Program

We will:

- discuss Clinical Services at DCAFS, including Special Needs Resourcing (i-CAN) and how it fits with other services at DCAFS.
- present the model of how we will work with children, families and child care providers.
- discuss what this means for children and families currently involved in PRP
- discuss what this means for those who own/operate or work in a licensed child care setting.

Pre-register by phone: 519-941-6991 ext. 2206 or email: jahall@dufferincounty.ca

Dinner and Child Care will be available if required (pre-registration required)
